ABOUT COLLEGE

Shri Chinai College of Commerce & Economics is a primeval college affiliated to the University of Mumbai which was established in the year 1963. Since its establishment till date the college is successfully providing quality education. The college has a deeper sense of its duties and responsibilities towards not only students but also towards teachers and its stakeholders. Along with B.Com, college is also successfully running self-finance courses i.e. B.Com. in Accountancy & Finance, B.Com. in Banking & Insurance, B.Com. in Financial Markets and Bachelor of Management Studies

ABOUT CONFERENCE

The purpose of this conference is to provide a platform to all researchers, academicians, professionals, students and corporate stakeholders to express their views and ideas on the revitalization of business strategies after COVID-19.

The COVID-19 pandemic has disrupted economic activity in India. Until mid-March 2020, the economy was mainly hit by disruptions in cross-border connections. The pandemic has magnified the various inequities among people, places and businesses in India, largely heaping health, social, and economic distress on the vulnerable segments.

The objectives of the conference are

1. To share insights about creating economic recovery and growth after COVID-19
2. To provide a platform to share new ideas and views on business recovery and growth after COVID-19
3. To get knowledge about strategies used by diverse businesses for flourishing with enormous growth after COVID-19 pandemic.
4. To explore hidden market opportunities available for business houses.
5. To discuss renewal of strategies adopted by businesses after COVID-19.
