INTRODUCTION

The ideation of this conference arrived from the misfortune situation faced by the entire world since almost last two years.

The World Health Organization (WHO) confirmed on 12 January 2020 that a novel coronavirus was the cause of respiratory illness in Wuhan city, China. Since then, the disease has been declared a pandemic and has spread relentless, particularly in the global north. India reported its first case of COVID-19 on 30 January. To minimize the loss, Honorable Prime Minister Shree Narendra Modi called for a complete lockdown of the entire nation on March 24, 2020 which has significantly impacted every aspect of the functions of our country.

Due to lockdown the whole nation was in trouble so as business houses. Business in India were facing numerous challenges like shortage of funds to start and expand the business, finding new customers, keeping existing customers, supply of materials and finished goods, scarcity of human resources, laws, policies, regulations, implementation of technology and so on

But it is rightly said that "Challenges are what make life interesting and overcoming them is what makes life meaningful" few businesses has faced this lockdown fearlessly and developed sustainable strategy for their survival.

The aim of this one day national conference is to provide a platform to all researchers, academicians, professionals and corporate stakeholders to express their views and ideas on the sustainability of business during COVID-19.

ABOUT PLATFORM

The stated conference has conducted online. The online platform has used for conducting conference is google meet. Google meet can run seamlessly on android, iOS and Web platforms hence we have selected google meet for conducting the conference. Due to restriction on number of participant 3 links has been provided to the participants.

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS

Keynote Speaker-1: Prof. Manas Pandey, Chairman, Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay Shodhpeeth.

Prof. Manas Pandey highlighted that COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted on rich as well as poor. The lockdown has adversely affected the home, business, and economy of all the countries. Even Indian Monetary Fund (IMF) declare 3% recession and notified about future state of depression. Sir has highlighted that the initiative taken by government under AatmaNirbhar Bharat Abhiyan for sustainability of business during COVID-19. He discussed the Framework and Self-financing model for the survival of business. Sir concluded with how economy, infrastructure, technology, demographic, demand framework can help for Self-Reliant India.

Keynote Speaker-2: Prof. K. S. Chandrasekar, Professor and Head, Institute Management Kerala (IMK), University of Kerala.

Prof. K. S. Chandrasekar acknowledged that people have lost their job during pandemic. Sir also reported that COVID-19 has opened our eyes and ears towards global change and survival. He also discussed the constructive role of technology during COVID-19. Businesses like Swiggy, Zomato, Ola, Uber etc. was able sustain during pandemic. The online delivery and online payment service has made the business to hold their customers and provided sustainability in their business. Sir has highlighted that there should be change in the approach of management and also the Information Technology (IT) infrastructure should be built in a such a way that it may help businesses to stabilize during and after COVID-19.
